Mr Shane Mochrie-Cox advised that his remit is to work with young people at risk and that two new generic youth workers have been hired, starting August/September, to carry out detached work in Greatness. The KCC's aim is:

 - to encourage active involvement of young people in the community

- iii) Community Safety Partnership – apologies had been received from Ms Kelly Webb and Ms Maxine Quinton.
- iv) Kent County Council – Mrs Theresa Seal, KCC Area Youth & Community Worker introduced Mr Shane Mochrie-Cox (KCC) Community Youth Worker based in The Knole Academy, Sevenoaks. Mr Shane Mochrie-Cox advised that his remit is to work with young people at risk and that two new generic youth workers have been hired, starting August/September, to carry out detached work in Greatness. The KCC's aim is:
 - to enhance and not duplicate work being carried out by Sevenoaks Town Council's Youth Café and to ensure that either end of the town is covered with help being readily available to the youth of Sevenoaks
 - to encourage active involvement of young people in the community
 - to engage with young people, identify and tackle issues and modern trends, e.g. self-harm, e-safety

Linda Larter MBE advised that following a recent meeting there is need for parents within Sevenoaks to be kept abreast of the issues concerning young people. Themed Coffee mornings will be arranged and KCC confirmed they could help to deliver talks.

Mrs Theresa Seal, KCC Area Youth & Community Worker, advised that following KCC's restructure, the direction of work has changed and that things are now done differently under the KLIASS (Kent Integrated Adolescent Support Services) issues are to be identified, such as ASBOs, teenage pregnancies, self-harm, e-safety for example. Currently there has been no reduction in staff, however more data has been made available to youth workers. The work carried out by youth workers remains the same with targets being changed.

- 71 It was RESOLVED that a press release be issued regarding the partnership DJ work shop due to take place at Sevenoaks and Edenbridge Youth cafes.
